Terre de los Lobos Vinho Tejo Portugal 19.00

Named after local wolves, this is an unusual dry white from the sunny vineyards of central Portugal, made from native grapes and showing real depth of citrus fruit, peach and blossom notes. This wine is so exceptional our wine list would not be complete without it!

Sauvignon Blanc Kuraka New Zealand 21.00

A full frontal assault of lingering elderflower, gooseberry and zesty lime made by the respected Kate Radburn of CJ Pask fame.

Chablis Domaine de Marronniers France 28.00

100% Chardonnay, unoaked and crisp with a steely backbone of acidity and a nutty, rich character.

SPECIAL CELLAR WHITE WINES

Puligny-Montrachet Les Houllieres France 55.00

A famous name in Burgundy, the small village of Puligny Montrachet makes arguably the finest dry whites anywhere in the World. This is rich, creamy and intense with notes of cereal, oak, baked apple and minerals – sublime, complex and long! Ideally served with a delicate white fish.

Viognier Cristom New Zealand 45.00

A rare and exciting dry white from one of the world's most obscure and hard-to-find wineries. Little more than a shack, Cristom vineyards in Oregon produce some of the finest and most powerfully perfumed Viognier to rival anything produced in France. Exotic, spice, apricot and vanilla character.

Chateau Fuisse Pouilly Fuisse Le Clos France 65.00

The most famous estate in the region of Pouilly Fuisse, this is 100% chardonnay, rich in oak, creamy fruit and hints of pineapple, mango and cereal - famous as one of the top dry whites in the Burgundy! A perfect partner with white meat.
